WHAT THE HALL OF FAME MEANS TO ITS INDUCTEES

"This award – I'm very honored by it. I'm humbled. If you look at the past inductees in this Hall of Fame and the current ones tonight, this is a humbling place to be. For all of you here, thank you for your presence. For me, again, this is quite the honor."

TOM HILL, VULCAN MATERIALS (2025 INDUCTEE)

"I am humbled when I say this accolade means the world to me. In many ways, it serves as a reminder of the impact we can make when we commit ourselves to excellence and innovation. This recognition is really not about me. It's about the dedication and hard work of the countless individuals who have supported and inspired me throughout my career."

RON DEDIEMAR (2025 INDUCTEE)

"I am wowed, honored and humbled to be an inductee in the Pit & Quarry Hall of Fame. It's an exclusive club. [There are only] 40 people. The Senate has 100 and they don't do anything. We do stuff. We make big rocks small."

NEIL HISE, CEMCO (2024 INDUCTEE)

"To be a member of the Pit & Quarry Hall of Fame and to be talked about in the same breath as the wonderful people who are members of the Hall of Fame is truly a privilege. I've had the opportunity to work with these men over the years and to be a part of this is truly, truly special."

EJ BURKE, DUPONT/DYNO NOBEL (2021 INDUCTEE)

"Do something you love. Because if you're happy – I don't care what your status is in life – you're successful. I want to congratulate the other award winners. I'm honored to be among you [and] your history."

GEORGE SIDNEY, MCLANAHAN CORP. (2019 INDUCTEE)
